The UNSC Resolution 1970 (2011), adopted on 26 February 2011, and UNSC Resolution 1973 (2011) adopted on 17 March 2011, provide that:

"The Security Council,

UNSC Resolution Nos. 1970 and 1973 seek to end murder and other similar acts in Libya, the circumstances of the commission thereof are similar/analogous to murder under the Revised Penal Code and acts of terrorism which are unlawful activities under Section 3(i), 12 and 3 of the Anti-Money Laundering Act of 2001 (AMLA), as amended by R.A. 10365 (2013). The freezing directive, on the other hand, of the resolutions shows a situation where there is funding of the said acts, making it similar or analogous to a financing of terrorism punishable under the penal laws of other countries. Under Section 3 (i) (13), in relation to (34) of the AMLA, as amended, an offense of similar nature to terrorism financing that is punishable under the penal laws of other countries is a predicate offense to money laundering.

Rule 13.g.2. of the Revised Implementing Rules and Regulations of the AMLA, as amended, provides:

"Rule 13.g.2. Authority to Assist the United Nations and other International Organizations and Foreign States. – The AMLC is authorized under Section 7 (8) and 13 (b) and (d) of the AMLA to receive and take action in respect of any request of foreign states for assistance in their own anti-money laundering operations. It is also authorized under Section 7 (7) of the AMLA to cooperate with the National Government and/or take appropriate action in respect of conventions, resolutions and other directives of the United Nations (UN), the UN Security Council, and other international organizations of which the Philippines is a member. However, the AMLC may refuse to comply with any such request, convention, resolution or directive where the action sought therein contravenes the provision of the Constitution or the execution thereof is likely to prejudice the national interest of the Philippines.” (emphasis supplied)

Section 7 (7) of the AMLA, as amended, referred to above provides:

“Sec. 7. Creation of the Anti-Money Laundering Council (AMLC). – xxx The AMLC shall act unanimously in the discharge of its functions as defined hereunder:

x x x

(7) to implement such measures as may be necessary and justified under this Act to counteract money laundering;

The inclusion of the aforementioned individual in the List of Individuals and Entities subject to asset freeze imposed by paragraph 17 of UNSC Resolution 1970 (2011) and paragraph 19 of UNSC Resolution 1973 (2011) requires a cooperative act among UN members.

Accordingly, as a charter member of the United Nations, the Philippines, through the Anti-Money Laundering Council, must actively support the actions required under the subject UNSC Resolutions.

The Council resolved to:

(1) Inform all covered persons of the following updates in the List of Individuals and Entities subject to asset freeze imposed by paragraph 17 of UNSC Resolution 1970 (2011) and paragraph 19 of UNSC Resolution 1973 (2011):
